CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES FACE PLANNERS TONIGHT

Two controversial issues on the agenda of the Campbell Planning Commission are expected to pack the house tonight. One deals with a zone-change and the other with a proposed cover and fill dump on the Los Gatos Creek.

Because the anticipated crowd would tax the already cramped quarters at the fire house on Central Ave., the regular meeting place, L. W. Harmon, secretary of the Commission, announced that the meeting will be held in the Country Woman's Clubhouse on Campbell Ave. at 7:30 p. m.

The Commission is expected to act on the application of George Bumb to operate a cover and fill dump in the Los Gatos Creek along the west side of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road between Campbell and Hamilton avenues. The property is located at the rear of the properties of Joseph Giannini and Lena Campisi. The cover and fill operation is planned to be operated behind the retaining wall and will only handle dry waste products which will be covered with earth and rolled.

Prior to taking action on the use permit, Homer Hyde, Commission chairman, said that motion pictures will be shown of other cover and fill operations. Representatives of the health department and other interested agencies are expected to report on such operations.

Petitions signed by 129 residents, mostly from Ridgely Drive, April Way, Kuehnis Drive, and McBain Ave., have been filed with the Commission requesting a zone change. The residents are asking that the area now zoned M-1-S along the west side of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road between Campbell and Hamilton avenues be changed to either R-2-S or C-1-S.

They claim in their petitions that the property in the general area is now being used for better class residential or commercial purposes and a light manufacturing zone is not for the best interests of the area as a whole. The commission will not take action on the petition tonight.

Other actions coming before the Commission tonight include: Application of J. P. and C. R. Russo for a zone change on property on Whitehall St.; application of William Ammon for zone-change on property located at 120 W. Campbell Ave.; application of Howard R. Atkinson for a variance to build a garage in front of his house on lot located at 220 W. Campbell Ave.; establish as M-1-S zone on the east side of Winchester Road between Casey Road and St. Lucy's Church property.

Council Directs Planners' Study Area Zone-Change

Campbell's City Council has officially added its weight to the movement to change the present zoning along the west side of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road between Campbell and Hamilton avenues.

The City Dads on Monday night adopted the motion made by Councilman John Chargin to direct the City Planning Commission and the city's planning consultant, Nestor Barrett, to study the possibility of changing the present light manufacturing zone to a more practical one.

This action followed that of a previous meeting when the Council upheld the action of the commission by a 3-2 vote to deny a use permit for Ivan Kucich to build an apartment in the M-1-S zone. The matter is also on the agenda tonight of the Planning Commission based on a petition of residents asking for the zone-change.

In other matters the Council:

1. Protested the proposed annexation action of San Jose in the controversial Southwestern No. 1 annexation which overlaps into the area of the proposed City of Saratoga. This same annexation includes a portion of what is termed Campbell's sphere of influence.

2. Remained firm on its stand in regard to the county-wide uniform sales tax awaiting notice from the county Board of Supervisors as to what its attitude will be. The cities in the county have declined to allow the county a "cut" in the proposed sales tax collected in the cities.

Files for Use Permit

Anthony Madonia who with his wife is undergoing investigation by the state as to their operation of nursing homes in the county, this week filed an application with the Campbell Planning Commission for a use permit to operate a nursing home at 291 San Jose-Los Gatos Road.

The matter will not be on the agenda, however, for several weeks, Mrs. Evelyn Adamson, deputy city clerk, reports.

On The Line in Campbell

There were a lot of "key-men" around the library recently when the Italian-American Club members gathered to hold their meeting. But the key was missing. Club member Frank Accardi had the key to the place. But he was in San Francisco and the key was with him. Calls to several other people, including Mrs. Laurance Hill and Mrs. Dean Chamberlin of the Country Woman's Club, and Norm Corvello, president of the Kiwanis Club, proved key-less. Finally Lawrence Benson, of Benson's Cleaners, who had an extra key was located. He came down and let the club members into their delayed meeting.

E. C. Merrill, 334 E. Campbell, city treasurer and long-time resident of Campbell, reported that recently he took a count of the cars passing his place during one hour of the day. He counted 750 cars passing during that time! He kept count by five minute-periods, he said, and there was very little variation between periods.

City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan reported to the City Council recently that receipts from the County Controller for fines collected in Campbell during January totalled $1327.00. She also reported that $6125.87, representing the quarterly payment of gas tax funds for the period ending December 31, 1955, had been received.

Albert Vatuone will be the principal of the new Martin H. Farnham School in the Cambrian School District, Superintendent D. M. Bagby has announced. This will be the fourth school for the district and will house approximately 500 students.

—o—

Sam Amadeo, 364 N. Central Ave., was recently given permission by the City Council to remove two Chinese elm trees from the park strip in front of his residence. LeRoy Black, street superintendent, reported to the Council that he had inspected the trees and they were lifting the sidewalks

Take A Number!

Although the new numbering plan for Campbell will not be officially adopted until March 12, the new Union Oil service station at the corner of Latimer Ave., and Winchester Road was granted one of the new numbers this week.

The service station was assigned 250 N .Winchester Road.

Nestor Barrett, planning consultant, issued the number because porcelainized signs on which the new number will repose are being made for the station and several months are needed to complete them.

Neither Barrett nor W. L. (Bud) Morser, building inspector, however, plan to issue any other numbers until the City Council officially adopts the new numbering system in two weeks.

ADULTS GET CHEST X-RAYS HERE MAY 15

Adults of this community will have an opportunity to check their chests for signs of tuberculosis or other chest diseases on May 15 when the Santa Clara County TB Association's Chestmobile will be stationed in Campbell.

This was announced this week by Sam Cava, secretary-manager of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, who has been named chairman of the committee handling the arrangements for the x-ray. The Chestmobile will be stationed at the Campbell Press, 21 Dillon, from 11 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. on May 15 and from 1 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Ten community leaders and health experts met last week to discuss the plans for the arrival of the Chestmobile. Persons whose films show any abnormal shadows will be referred to their family physicians for diagnosis. Only children whose skin tests show a positive reaction will be x-rayed, the committee emphasized.

Mrs. Jane Ruffino Campbell school nurse, presided at the committee's meeting. Present also were Mrs. Iva Thomason, public health nurse, County Health Department; Mrs. William F. Runge Campbell High School nurse; Mrs. Andrew Lassen, Campbell Christmas Seal chairman; Dr. Lydia Verbarg, school physician; Mrs Herman Rice, Sr., Women's Service Club; Vincent Parlett, health educator; County Health Department; Mrs. John Kinney, x-ray technician; Mrs. Geraldine Terrell, assistant executive secretary of the county TB association and Sam Cava, of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce.

NUMBERS WAIT ON RULING

Final adoption of the new house and building numbering plan for Campbell was delayed Monday for two weeks by the City Council This grace period will allow the city attorney to draft an ordinance that will include ample time for residents and business people to make the shift from old to new numbers.

The Council was scheduled to adopt the ordinance on Monday night but felt that it was necessary to specify how much time people would have to make the change. City Attorney Joseph Bonacina asked for the two weeks time to study the matter. Under ordinary circumstances an ordinance goes into effect within 60 days after its adoption.

Nestor Barrett, planning consultant, at the hearing Monday night explained in detail how the new numbering system would work. He said that under state law it was mandatory that planning commissions install numbering plans and no longer was it a function of the postal department.

The Campbell plan is based on the county system which assigns 1000 numbers per mile, allowing a different number for every ten feet.

The intersection of Campbell Ave and Winchester Road is the "base-line" for the system. The consultant showed a map of the town divided into blocks of 1000 numbers each. ....It indicated that no building in Campbell would reach the 3000 bracket until the area of the city was expanded further. The numbers would run north and south on Winchester Road and east and west on Campbell Ave. The odd and even plan of numbering as is now in existence would be continued.

Barret said his survey showed that it was not practical to allow the present numbers to stand because of the confused state. The old system, he pointed out did not allow for enough numbers and it was impossible to make a workable system from it.

Barret said the post office department was anxious to see some system put into effect and he felt that the department would cooperate during the transition period. After adequate time had been allowed to install the system, he said, the post office could refuse to deliver mail to those who did not have the new numbers.

Philip D. Lively, 291 Richlee, was the lone opponent to the new system at the hearing. He felt that installing new numbers would be a costly job for the residents and that the expense was too much for the value received. Only one other protest was received. One woman wrote that she received 27 magazines per month and changing numbers would prove to be a great inconvenience to her.

FAMED BARBER SHOP QUARTETTES PRESENT PROGRAM MARCH 9 - 10

Local followers of that popular bit of Americana of the past, barbershop quartet singing, will have their opportunity to enjoy themselves Friday and Saturday, March 9-10. A two-hour program will be presented those nights at the Campbell Grammar School auditorium with eight different quartets taking part. The program, called the Harmony Festival, is jointly sponsored by the Campbell Lions Club and the Campbell Elementary School PTA.

The quartets will represent northern California chapters of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, better known as SPEBSQSA.

The San Jose chapter of the organization, which has several Campbell members, was instrumental in arranging for the appearance of the eight quartets which have established enviable reputations in the entertainment world.

Master of ceremonies will be Bob Faulkner, a master sergeant in the U. S. Army, on duty as ROTC instructor at Santa Clara University. He has acted as master of ceremonies at service shows all over the world and is a longtime member of the SPEBSQSA.

Among the quartets taking part will be the "Edenaires", semi-finalists for three years in the regional barbershop singing contests; "High Tones", which stopped the last contest for a half hour to allow the judges and audience to recover from the hilarious comedy; "Millionaires", "Frisco Four", a group that sings the beer commercials for Burgermeister; "Forte-Niners"; "The Alley Cats"; and the "Savoir Four".

SPEBSQSA was organized in Tulsa, Okla., in 1938 and now includes 450 chapters with more than 30,000 members in the United States, Canada and Hawaii. The organizer felt that barber shop singing was one of the last bits of human liberty remaining and needed to be perpetuated. It is a service organization and presents the entertainment for worthwhile projects in communities throughout the country.

All the proceeds from the local program will go to the polio funds of the PTA and Lions Club. Tickets will sell for $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children.

Breakfast Opens Annual Drive for Local Red Cross

The kick-off breakfast at 9 o'clock this morning in the adminstration building of the high school opens the 1956 membership drive for the Campbell area American Red Cross. The drive this year is under the direction of Howard Lillingston.

Sound films of recent views of the flood at Yuba City and Guerneyville at the breakfast emphasizes what the Red Cross has done in those areas during the disaster.

Mrs. Howard Keech will assist Major Lillingston in the fund drive as vice-chairman.

Other chairmen include, Raymond Bishop, advance gifts; Robert Culp, George Kemp, schools; Mrs. Vince Vallelunga, Campbell business; "Mac" Morton, Cambrian Park; Henry Jewell, Cambrian Corners; Residential area captains are: Mrs. W. L. Mallman, Cypress; Mrs. H. Binley, Rosemary; Mrs. Eugene Sabo, Cherry Lane; Mrs. Ralph Nelson, San Tomas; Mrs. Elva Rodgers and Mrs. Gene Riordan, Moreland; Mrs. Ruth Chapin, Moorpark; Mrs. Paul Christianson, Hamilton No. 1; Mrs. Pete Zavlaris, Hamilton No. 2; Mrs. Berwyn Lee, Cambrian Corners and Mrs. E. T. Shaw and Mrs. Leopold Diel, Cambrian Park.

Laurance Hill, chairman of the Campbell Red Cross Chapter, said that more than $2500 has been spent by the Red Cross in the Campbell area alone. He also revealed that approximately $3 million was spent in Yuba City and $1½ million in Santa Cruz.

Chamber Shifts Dates Of Old Settlers' Days

Old Settlers' Day, the second oldest celebration in California, will take place this year in Campbell on May 4-5-6.

Milton Nelson, president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, announced this week that the directors voted to shift the dates from those originally set because of conflict with activities in other communities.

The 64th Annual Old Settlers' Day previously had been scheduled for May 11-12-13, the same days as the "It's May Day in Los Banos".

Parade on Saturday

Nelson also announced that the parade will take place on the Saturday (May 5) of the three-day celebration. There was some concern over whether the parade should be on Saturday or Sunday and the decision was left in the hands of the Campbell Ave. merchants.

Under the direction of Sam Cava, secretary-manager, a poll of the merchants revealed that 64 favored a Saturday parade, 11 wanted it on Sunday and 19 didn't care which day, as long as there was a parade.

Cava reported that he expects to call a meeting of the general committee next week. Every organization in the community has been asked to name a representative to serve on the committee but a number of organizations have not yet responded.

Music Group Named

Because of the slowness in the organizations responding to the request for representatives, a music committee was appointed this week to begin contacting various musical organizations and arranging for the musical portion of the celebration. William Perkins, band instructor at Campbell High School, was named chairman of this committee with Eddie Tonini, head of the music department of the elementary schools, as co-chairman. Last year there were eight bands in the parade, setting a new record, and it is hoped to exceed this feat this year.

Entry blanks will be available this weekend for potential parade entries at the Chamber of Commerce office, Cava said. The change in date of the event has delayed the issuing of the entry blanks. Last year there were 167 units in the parade.

Play on Friday

The tentative program calls for the "Footlighters", local theatrical group, to present a play in the high school auditorium. The parade and carnival will be the main attractions on Saturday. On Sunday, May 6, only a week prior to Mother's Day it is planned to carry out the Mother's Day theme in the program for the day.

When the general committee meets next week, the various subcommittees will be appointed

CITY TO GROW

In all probability Campbell will grow to the extent of at least 15 acres suitable for industrial use within a short time, it was revealed Monday night at the City Council meeting by Warren Brown, 275 Cloverdale Ave.

Brown reported that a section south of Campbell is now waiting approval of the County Boundaries Commission. When this approval is granted the property owners will ask to come into Campbell. Brown said he owns three acres and that R. C. Herschbach is the owner of the other 12.

The section adjoins the Campbell Lumber Co. property at Casey Road and Winchester Road.

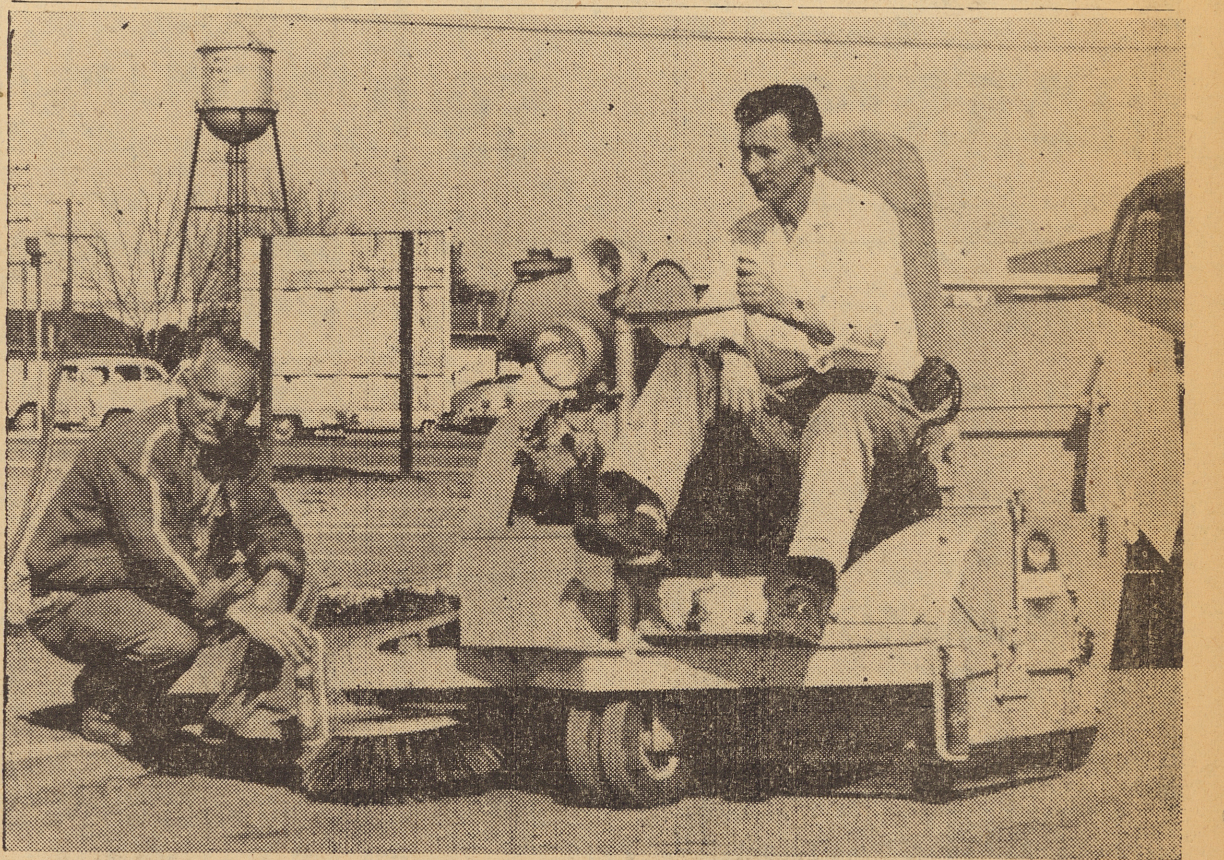
Nine FFA Boys From Here Enter Project Finals

Nine members of the Campbell Union High School and the Camden High School chapters of the Future Farmers of America will represent these schools in the finals of this year's farm program competition, sponsored by the State Bureau of Agricultural Education and American Trust Company.

The boys from Campbell Union High School are Alfred Amstotz, Arthur Erwin, Steve Hallberg, Delbert Herschback, and Gary Steindorf, and those from Camden High School are Mel Burrow, Larry Lindsay, Pedro Rodriguez and Dayle Waddington. These boys, whose farm projects were judged best in their school, will now enter a Sectional Competition involving 54 Future Farmers from 10 high schools in the Santa Clara Valley.

Fred J. Oehler, Vice President and Manager of American Trust Company's San Jose Office, announces that all of the Future Farmers taking part in the Section Competition will be honored by the bank at an awards banquet to be held at the Sainte Claire Hotel in San Jose on the evening of March 7.

Project judging in this area will take place during the week of February 27. Serving as judges are Ralph Gilman, Agricultural Representative, San Jose Office, American Trust Company,



A CLEAN SWEEP . . . LeRoy Black, Campbell street superintendent, checks the brush on the street sweeper owned and driven by James Bailey, 465 Budd Ave. Bailey has just completed a 30-day trial period of sweeping eight blocks on both sides of Campbell Ave. from the railroad to Winchester Road twice each week. Black recommended Monday night to the City Council that the arrangement be continued. Bailey, who has contracts with large department stores to clean their parking lots, is through with his Campbell job by 8 a. m. each Monday and Friday. The street superintendent reports that the 4-foot spread on the brush does a good job on the streets and gutters but the appearance of the streets would be greatly improved, if the merchants would cooperate by picking up the debris in the gutters after they have finished sweeping their sidewalks in the morning—Campbell Press Photo

Moreland School District Reveals Phenomenal Growth in 10-Year Span

"You Ain't seen nothin' yet!"— In ten years the enrollment in the Moreland School District has increased from 157 students to 1236. But that increase is only the start of the growth that is in store for the district. The district now has three schools in operation It will need a total of 16 to accommodate the anticipated 11,377 enrollment.

This was revealed on Monday night when the Board of Trustees of the district received the report from county officials as to the number of schools that will be needed based on the potential growth of the area.

The phenomenal climb of the district, the oldest rural school district in California, has largely taken place enrollment wise since Mrs. Gussie Baker, the superintendent, arrived on the scene in 1937 as a teacher. She became the teacher-principal in 1941 of the district's only school, comprising four classrooms with four teachers. Even in 1946, just 10 years ago there was still but one school with an enrollment of only 157.

The original school was built in 1894 on a two-acre site. At the present time three schools have more than 30 acres. The trustees are now calling for bids for the construction of the Strawberry Park school and are also negotiating for the purchase of more than 25 acres on Campbell Ave., on which the first upper-grade school for the district will be built.

It is anticipated that the enrollment will jump to 1750 by the time the Strawberry Park school is completed. From then on it will be just a matter of keeping up with the times when the remainder of the schools will be needed. The district now has the Moreland, Quito Park, and Bucknall schools. Strawberry Park School will be built next.

Mrs. Baker reported that the planners feel that two high schools will be needed in the area in the future to accommodate the students. The district is a part of the Campbell Union High School District. Ultimate plans call for 13 schools with grades from kindergarten through sixth, two with seventh and eighth grades and two high schools.

Buc Matmen Boast 11-2 Team Record As Season Ends

By taking fourth place in the Northern California High School Wrestling Championships the Campbell Buccaneer wrestling team has compiled a good deal of Praise this year. They won the SCVAL Championship their sixth victory in ten years and they also won the SCVAL dual meet Championship.

The Bucs have won the Championship six times since the league admitted wrestling in 1946. In these ten years the Bucs also shared the championship with Gilroy one year. The other three championship in the past decade were won twice by James Lick and once by Fremont.

The Bucs scored 430 points in dual meets this year for a 33 point average as compared to 173 points and a 13.3 average for their opponents. They had an 11 win and 2 loss season which gave them a .846 average.

Roger Lukehart, who was awarded the "Most Outstanding Wrestler" award at the NCHSCW, was by far the most contributing factor to the Buc's success. Roger won 17 matches while losing none and 13 of his wins were by pins..

Buc Thirties End Basketball Season

Although the Buc Thirties dropped their season final 54 to 44 to the Washington High School Huskies of Fremont they ended their campaign with a 6 and 12 record. The Bucs scored 496 points for the season which gave them a 27.5 average as compared to 637 and a 35.4 average for their opponents. The Bucs averaged 3.1 points per player per game.

Don Kitijima took high point honors for the season as he netted 182 points to average 10.2 points per game. Don hit in double figures 10 out of the eighteen games this season and had a five game streak in the double figures. Mickie Filing was the only Buc to score in each game as he took second place in the scoring column for the Bucs.

The highest scorer against the Campbell 30 was Brigk of Lincoln who pushed 18 points through the net in the second encounter between the Lions and the Bucs.

Man Pleads Guilty

Willis Dean French, who was arrested in San Jose last Thursday on a forgery charge by Officer Dick Mayne of the Campbell police, was bound over to the Superior Court on Tuesday after pleading guilty to three counts of forgery.

He was arraigned Friday and bail was set at $2000. He waived the preliminary hearing. French was charged with forging a check for $69.50 at the Towne Pride Market in Campbell. He also admitted another forgery at Dick's Super Market on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road.

BUCS AGAIN EYE TITLE

By Bill Williams

The Campbell High Varsity baseball team began practice for the 1956 campaign on the first of February. They played the opening game of the season against San Jose Tech yesterday on their home diamond and travel to Sequoia today as they limber up in preparation for the defense of their league crown. Loop play starts March 22 against Los Gatos.

In the past year's competition the Buc Nine won Co-championship, the first baseball championship since Campbell joined the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League. They shared the honors with the Fremont Indians last year, although the Bucs downed them 3 to 1. The Bucs only loss last year was suffered at the hands of the Panthers of Santa Clara.

The horse-hiders look forward to another championship season under the guidance of Coach Mel Stein. The main factor in the success of the season could be senior hurler Bob Sutton who had an excellent season last year after playing at catcher the year before that. He was undefeated in league play last year.

Also aiding the Bucs will be returning regulars Pete Castellanos, third base; Jerry Sutton, short stop; and Matt Musladin, center field in their campaign for another successful season. Coming up from the Frosh-Soph team will be Frank Koontz, Bruce Viles, Roger Almquist, Mike Brown, Don Kitijima, John Maglioco, Benny Daniel, Abe Omura, Dave Labarbera, and Jim Keech in this season's contests for a starting position on the team.

Transfers such as Lee McNabb and Gene Bowen will add to the competition for the infield on the Buc squad.

Campbell Cagers Have 6-14 Record

By downing the Washington Huskies of Fremont 50 to 42 in the season final the Campbell Varsity boosted their season record to 6 wins and 14 losses. The Bucs netted 751 points for the season as they received a 37.5 point game average. Their opponents scored 854 points and averaged 42.7 points per game; and Campbell and their opponents averaged only a 5.2 margin per game.

Jim Williams topped Roger Almquist 144 to 143 for the season's scoring crown for the Bucs. Jim averaged 7.5 points per game while Roger averaged 7.4. Jim and Roger were also the only Bucs to score in each contest during the season plus each hitting in the double figures on five occasions.

The highest scoring against Campbell was committed by Tom Hansen in the Alumni Game as he netted eighteen. Barnes of Palo Alto and Quibelan of San Jose each rung seventeen digits to take top honors against the Bucs in High School competition.

HOUSE NUMBERING AND BLOOD PRESSURE

The residents of this community must be prepared for a certain amount of inconvenience during the time when the new house numbering plan is going into effect.

Almost every house number, as well as the business houses, will be changed. We are satisfied, however, that in the final analysis the inconvenience will be worth it.

When the system is finally established there will be a definite pattern set up which can be followed right down the line whenever new streets are cut through or new subdivisions are laid out.

But let's face it.

Such a plan cannot be put into effect without causing a certain amount of aggravation and even some expense to the various residents and business people affected.

Tempers are bound to be lost when the reshuffling takes place; but, if the people remember that in the long run it will work out for the best, perhaps the blood pressure can be held down to a minimum rise.

OLD SETTLERS' DAY

Old Settlers' Day will be held on May 4-5-6, the Board of Directors of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce announced this week.

The dates of the annual celebration (the second oldest in California) were first scheduled for May 11-12-13, but because of various conflicts with other events in nearby communities (Los Banos May Day, for example), the C. of C. felt that the new dates would be better.

There can never be a date, however, that will please everyone.

And there will always be conflicts in one way or another.

By the same token there will always be disagreements as to the day the parade should be staged.

Sound arguments for a parade on Sunday can be advanced and good reasons for a Saturday parade can also be presented. This was brought forth recently at the board meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

We thought it showed excellent judgment on the part of Chamber officials to poll the merchants on Campbell Ave., in order to get their reaction to a Saturday or Sunday parade. The merchants overwhelmingly favored Saturday.

Now that the date of the big event has been set definitely as well as the day of the parade, all forces should join together to make the 1956 celebration the greatest in its colorful history.

We think Old Settlers' Day is a "natural." It is the perfect set-up for the blending of the old with the new. And coming this year close to Mother's Day, there is an opportunity for an added theme.

Two months does not leave any spare time for preparation and the cooperation of the entire community will be needed, if this year's program can compare with the previous ones.

SALES TAX TROUBLES

Although the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors has not officially informed the Campbell City Council (or other councils affected) what its stand is on the new uniform sales tax program, indications are that the supervisors will not adopt any county-wide ordinance unless the county shares in the "take."

Under the law which the legislature passed last session, unless the county adopts a sales tax ordinance, the state will not do the collecting. These cities then, that have sales taxes, must do the collecting themselves. According to experience, the percentage of collection is much higher in the state operation than in the lower governmental units.

What the county wants is to share in the collections of the tax in the various incorporated cities in the county, in addition, of course, to the money received from the sales tax that will be collected in the unincorporated communities.

In effect, the county is using a sort of "blackjack" method. The cities feel that all the money raised by the sales tax in the cities should be used for capital improvements in the cities in which it was paid. City officials feel that the collections in county territory are all that the county is entitled to.

We are inclined to agree with the cities in this respect.

We feel that a great deal of confusion will be eliminated by a uniform sales tax. But we don't think the county should force the cities to give it a "cut" just in order that the uniform county law be adopted.

In our opinion that was not the intent of the law in the first place.

The City of Campbell, by the way, opposed the adoption of the law from the beginning; but now that it is on the books, the city wants all that is coming to it—which is only fair, in our opinion.

We hope that the two governmental bodies can get together within a short time. Campbell can use the money. That we are sure.

The Campbell Gambol

SUDDENLY From nowhere in particular and without warning, flocks of birds appeared in Campbell Saturday to strip the red berries from the pyrocantha and cotoneaster shrubs, just like they do every year, only this time they seem to have been blown in with the wind and the rain... Edward Bolz of the Farm Advisor's office in San Jose says they are the Cedar Wax Wings, a bird with prominent cleft that gets its name because of its unique fondness for the cedar berry, and that it migrates in flocks sort of sensing when berries are ripe which is when the seed is brown, and they will descend to strip the wax-like berries from the thorny pyrocantha and the upright or prostrate cotoneasters, leaving only the evergreen leaves and scattering seeds about . . . we saw a few robins get in the act trying to be big brothers but soon giving up to hop about on lawns and pounce on a few juicy worms which they consider a delicacy, and we saw mockingbirds get off their high perches on TV towers, PG&E poles and tree tops to mingle awhile then disgustedly return to their songs and somersaults, as the cedar-wax wings seemed greedy and songless, and the robins seemed tuned in with the earth as to the movement of worms.

ALL THE WORMS In Campbell are not to be found in the earth though . . . some are in bins and some come out of slot machines . . . we thought it was a bit odd down in Los Angeles a fortnight ago to see a place where they will pierce the ears of your dog for earrings, where they sell used houses from a lot, like usually done with used cars, and where they have set up on a city block what is known as auction city, but we had to come back to Campbell and learn that Paul Marcuson of 716 White Oak Road has just received a patent on a slot machine dispensing cartons of fish worms . . . yes sir, just put two quarters in a slot, press a plunger and out rolls a pint container with sixty hybrid red wiggling worms bedded in leaf mold and sand. . . Marcuson who is from Missouri, brought worms from that state and began growing them commercially for fishermen here about three years ago and has been unable to keep up with the demand during fishing season. . . most of his customers are inclined to arrive at odd hours on week ends which made the work too confining, so he devised the slot machine a year ago but did not put it to use until he had it patented . . . he will put it in front of the house soon, loaded with cartons resembling those used for ice cream packs, and he will have a drive-in fishworm service so a motorist can drive alongside of the machine, put in a couple of quarters or a half dollar, push the plunger and get the worms without even getting out of the car . . . then Marcuson won't have to be answering the doorbells at four o'clock in the morning but will dream of the time he can lead the life of Riley by making enough of the machines and grow enough worms to supply the demand at the many resort lakes and streams.

COUNTY LIBRARY Reference on habits of the Cedar Wax Wing is that it is a goofy sort of bird that is most unpredictable and greedy not only for berries but also for cherries . . . that it wanders at will from Central America to the lower part of Canada, carried often with winds after stuffing itself to some new haunt for a repast.—L. E. L.

Health Council Forms in Schools

Plans are being developed within Campbell Elementary School District for a new School Health Council. Plans call for an advisory group to be made up of representatives from fields within the schools having health interests, and outside groups including parent units, physicians and dentists.

Now under way is preparation of a constitution for the new group, which will also incorporate Civil Defense in its activities.

Organizational activities are in the hands of Dr. Lydia Verbarg, school district physician; Anne Meridier, principal of Cherry Lane School, and Shirley Hall, psysical education consultant for the district.

Formation of the School Health Council was first undertaken last January. Taking part in the initial discussion were Helen Petersen co-ordinator of instruction; Marian Garrett, Dr. Verbarg, Jane Ruffino, Helen Leigh, Robert Downing, Doris Hubbard, Marilyn Perkov, Ernest Rideout, Mrs. Meridier, Joseph Stein and Mrs. Hall.

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS
TENTH DISTRICT, CALIFORNIA

Political campaigns of this presidential year are not very far off, so people here are chuckling over a story told by former Assistant Secretary of State Thurston Morton of Kentucky. Seems congressional candidates of both the Republican and Democratic parties accidentally scheduled meetings in one little Kentucky community for the same hour, same day. And the town only had one auditorium which was located in the courthouse.

The sheriff, who also had to sweep out the courthouse, told the contending candidates they'd have to have their meetings at the same time. After all", he grumbled, "I'm not going to sweep out the courthouse twice in one day."

The sheriff even volunteered to introduce the opposing candidates.

At the appointed hour, the biggest crowd ever to gather in the town, 43 persons, was on hand when the sheriff rose and said:

"I want to present to you a man who, above anyone, has the welfare of each and everyone of you at heart. More than anyone I know, he is devoted to our country our district, and to the great and glorious State of Kentucky.

"He understands, as no other man, the complex problems of our great nation; and I know of no other who is so expert in the fields of foreign affairs, economics, education, and taxation..."

With that, the sheriff turned to the two candidates and asked "Now, which of you two polecats wants to talk first?"

Merchants in the national capital traditionally celebrate Washington's birthday by putting on "super sales", offering such leader items as an automobile for $1.98 or a television set for 89 cents. Hardy bargain hunters often comp out all night in front of a given store in order to be first in line when the sale opens.

Two National Guardsmen, intent on buying a $2.95 television set for a Crippled Children's home, had slept in front of the store and managed to crowd into the place when the doors were opened. When they stated their purpose, however, they really got a surprise. Instead of the "special" set, they were handed a factory-new console from regular stock—compliments of the management.

Millwood's decorations include the Purple Heart and the Combat Infantryman Badge. His wife, Doris Jean, lives in Irvington, Ky:

The Spanish word for ash tree is "fresno", and it was because of the abundance of mountain ash in the vicinity that Fresno County was so named.

KAM - CAHILL NUPTIALS READ AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Before the altar banked with white gladioli and ferns, Miss Anona Jeanne Cahill became the bride of Robert Kam in a double ring ceremony at the Campbell Methodist Church on the afternoon of February 11. Rev Herbert Neale officiated at the ceremony.

Miss Cahill, who was escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, was attired in a long sleeved, full length gown fashioned of white lace to the hipline, with a white satin skirt under tulle. Her fingertip veil descended from a white coronet of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and Cattleya orchids.

Miss Hessie Cahill was maid of honor for her neice. She wore a lime green crystalette gown and carried a colonial bouquet of deep rose, feathered carnations. Her two sisters, the Misses Jane and Lani Cahill, were bridesmaids, attired in pink crystalette gowns carrying colonial bouquets of light pink, feathered carnations. The bride's five-year old sister, Robin, in a pink taffeta dress under tulle, was the flower girl.

Charles Kaihui attended the groom as best man. Richard Takuda and Russell Cahill were ushers.

Mrs. William A, Cahill chose a pink tailored dress for the ceremony. A corsage of pink roses was pinned at her shoulder.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Mary Kam, wore a navy suit for the wedding. She had a corsage of Talisman roses.

Bridal music, "O Perfect Love" and "Wedding Prayer" was presented by Miss Margo Hopkins, vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. Edith van Rossem at the organ.

A reception for more than 100 friends and relatives of the couple was held in the home of the bride's parents, which was decorated with white stock and gladioli.

Following the reception, the couple left for a short wedding trip to San Francisco. The new Mrs. Kam chose a rust colored suit for her going away ensemble. She wore a corsage of orchids from her wedding bouquet. The newly weds are now at home in San Jose.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Cahill of 1031 Burrows Road, Campbell, is a Campbell High School graduate, and employed as a psychiatric technician at Agnews State Hospital.

The groom, son of Mrs. Mary Kam of Honolulu, T. H., attended schools in Honolulu. He is a recent graduate of San Jose State College where he majored in public administration. He is presently employed by the state of California.
